President Will Speak Along
Broad Lines In Addressing
Extra Session

GATHERING OPINIONS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—While it is assured from the defensive measures already taken by the military arm of the government, President Wilson in addressing congress next week will ask for war against Germany, or a declaration that a state of war exists, it is known he will speak along broad lines, dealing lightly with incidents leading up to the present crisis.

Wilson Gathering Opinions.
Officials feel now that the time is past when incidents should be discussed and henceforth, that only fundamental questions of both present and future American safety should be considered. As a result the president is gathering opinions and suggestions from all sides as to the sort of address to make.

The general situation has not been changed by the speech of the German Chancellor on Bethmann-Hollweg, today, according to the view tonight of officials who read press reports of the portion of the address dealing with the United States and submarine warfare.

Germany, it was said has consistently attempted to lay the blame for her acts on other nations. On previous occasions President Wilson has taken the position that Germany is in no way justified in carrying on submarine warfare because of the British blockade.

Only complete abandonment of unrestricted submarine warfare could change the attitude of the United States, it has been semi-officially said recently, and press reports indicate that the German chancellor did not even discuss that possibility.

The president will meet with his cabinet tomorrow for the last time before beginning the actual writing of his message to congress.

He is hopeful that no time will be lost in organizing the house so that he may deliver his address as soon as possible after the extra session convenes. The attitude of both congress and public opinion is sought in order to represent both as fully as possible.

Public Favors Action.
Public opinion it was said here as indicated by clipping from newspapers from all parts of the country, unmistakably favors decisive action. Belligerency is not confined to the Atlantic and Pacific sections if opinions gathered by the administration are a true index. Demand for action on the part of congress and the president comes from the interior section also. The views reported by some midwestern congressmen as to the apathy of their constituents is considered more local than general.

The greatest point under consideration at the administration at the present time is whether Germany has not unmistakably shown, thru a long succession of violations of international law, that the United States must definitely unite with the liberal democracies of the world against the four most complete autocracies, both for its present and its future safety.

All hope has been lost as shown in the note to Germany as to the treaty of 1828, in the good faith of the present German rulers. The Belgian invasion and deportations, the ruthless submarine warfare, the attempts to embroil neutral countries in plots and the general conduct of the war have convinced many officials that the German military system as at present directed is a permanent danger to the world's peace.

Further Disclosures Likely.
The administration has much material not yet made public. It is understood moreover that the complete text of the Zimmerman note has not been published. Further disclosures of intrigues may be expected at any time.

Pull co-operation with the allies therefore is generally favored as a necessity to America's future safety. German victory now it is said, might lead to a general attack on this country later and would at last necessitate extensive armament. A deadlock, at the same time would be tantamount to a German victory on the basis that while after peace the German union would become stronger or the entente might very easily fall

RECOMMEND UNIVERSAL
COMPULSORY TRAINING

Defense Convention of National Guard Takes Action

Favors National Guard as a Part of the Federal Force—Veterans' Committee Favors Training Under Exclusive Federal Control.

New York, March 29.—Universal compulsory military training with the National Guard as a part of the federal force was recommended by the unanimous vote of delegates to the national defense convention of the National Guard Association of the United States at its closing session here today. Members of the universal service committee of veterans of the National Guard and Naval Militia, meeting later, went on record as favoring "universal military training and training under exclusive federal control for all male citizens of the United States of suitable age."

Officers of the veterans committee had requested permission to address the national defense convention at 5 o'clock this afternoon but as it had been announced that the convention would vote on the resolution at 3 o'clock a motion was adopted calling upon the veterans to speak at the earlier hour. None of them was present and the convention passed its resolution and then adjourned.

This, however, did not deter the veterans committee from holding its meeting.

Delegates who attended the defense convention declared tonight that the significance of the resolutions passed by the veterans lay in the fact that they favored compulsory universal service under exclusive federal control without mentioning the National Guard as a part of the federal force. The resolutions presented to the defense convention were amended before the vote was taken so as to provide that the national guard be taken out of the militia class and become a veritable federal force with such provisions governing the location of units, the appointment of officers and representatives in the general staff as the congress may prescribe.

REPUBLICANS DIVIDED

Democrats Face Serious Problem in Announced Opposition of Gallivan

WILL SUPPORT CLARK

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Factional battle flags were hoisted tonight in both Democratic and Republican camps in preparation for the conference tomorrow and Saturday over house organization plans. The Republicans are divided along many lines. While it now is generally conceded that the party will have a full ticket in the field, the Progressive bi-partisan temporary organization and anti-Mann factions are expected to have much to say before a program is finally agreed upon. Democrats face a serious problem in the announced opposition of Representative Gallivan, a "wet" insurgent generally accredited with a score of followers to the organization plan for re-seating old committee chairmen and advancing other committeemen to chairmanships under the seniority rule. Arriving here today Mr. Gallivan announced that while he would support Speaker Clark for re-election he would not go into the Democratic caucus, would oppose the Democratic organization committee plan and would further urge the naming of several Republicans to committeeships.

May Upset Party Plans.

Fears that enough Democrats may follow the Massachusetts member to upset party plans are based largely upon his success during the closing days of the last session in defeating a judicious retirement bill earnestly desired by Southern Democrats. Democrats will caucus tomorrow afternoon and a complete organization plan will be worked out. Unless unexpected changes are made, the tentative arrangements for making committee assignments probably will be adopted. The Republican committee of twenty-seven will meet tomorrow afternoon and prepare its final recommendations to be presented to the Republican conference Saturday. It already has adopted a resolution recommending that a committee of fifteen, to be headed by the speaker, name the committees.

Plans not only for organization of the house but also for the conduct of business on the Republican side will be thrashed out in the Republican conference. Regardless of what party organizes the house the Progressive Republicans will insist that their membership take a constructive stand on all important measures. Should they dislike a Democratic proposal the Progressive element insist they should offer a substitute instead of merely objecting.

Lenroot May Oppose Mann.
The question of who shall be the floor leader in case the Democrats organize the house also probably will be brought before the meeting. Whether Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, the acknowledged Progressive-Republican, will be put actively into the race against Representative Mann in case of the re-election of Speaker Clark is causing much speculation.

Representative Mann is expected to offer his bi-partisan organization plan and Representative Towne's temporary organization project now supported also by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts, will be discussed.

Representative Martin, Progressive protectionist of Louisiana who many think may cast the deciding vote for speaker, signified his return to Washington today by refusing to say whom he would support.

TORPEDO BRITISH STEAMER IN ATLANTIC

Admiralty Reports Alnwick Castle Sunk Without Warning

Some Persons are Reported Dead and Others Missing—Passengers and Crews Abandon Ship in Five Boats—One Boat Missing.

London, March 29.—The British Steamship Alnwick Castle has been torpedoed in the Atlantic Ocean. Some persons are reported dead and others missing.

The admiralty has informed The Associated Press that the Alnwick Castle was torpedoed without warning March 19 in the Atlantic, 320 miles from the nearest land. On the previous day the steamer had rescued the crew of another British steamer that also had been torpedoed.

The passengers and crews of both vessels abandoned the Alnwick Castle in five boats. One of these boats landed on the Spanish coast. It originally contained twenty persons, including a stewardess and a child, but five of them died.

Three other boats were also picked up during the week, one containing 27, another 29 and the third 29 survivors. In these boats there were five dead. The fifth boat that put out from the steamer has not yet been accounted for.

The British Steamer Alnwick Castle measured 5,300 tons gross and was owned by the Union Castle Mail Steamship company of London. She was built in Glasgow in 1901. She was probably in the service of the British government.

PERMITS INCREASED
RATE ON COAL AND COKE

Interstate Commerce Commission Reaches Decision on Proposal of Eastern Lines

Washington, March 29.—The interstate commerce commission today decided to permit increased rates on coal and coke proposed by eastern lines as a part of general advances in freight rates to become effective without suspension. The increases are from five to ten cents per ton on bituminous coal and from 10 to 65 cents on coke.

In the case of these rates shippers as well as railroad interests already have been heard. Applications for the specific increases were filed in advance of the petition of eastern roads looking to a general advance on freight rates. Applications for increased rates on ore, the only other commodity excepted from the general increase of 15 per cent desired, now are pending before the commission. The increased coal rates apply from West Virginia and Pennsylvania fields to tide-water. The increase being five cents a ton from Pennsylvania fields to tide-water, the per ton from West Virginia fields, effective April 16 and April 1 respectively. The increases in coke rates vary from 10 to 65 cents per ton and apply from ovens in West Virginia to blast furnaces in Virginia, effective April 1.

No announcement was made as to the commission's decision with respect to the proposed increase of 15 cents per ton on coal from Pennsylvania fields to lake ports.

SUSPECTED SUBMARINES
WERE PATROL BOATS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Official announcement that the supposed submarines reported Monday night off Montauk Point were in reality patrol motor boats returning to Long Island Sound after trial trips was made today by the navy department.

"The navy department," said a department statement, "has chased down the rumor that two strange submarines were sighted off Montauk Point at six o'clock on the evening of March 26, headed into Long Island Sound. These supposed submarines were two patrol motor boats returning from a trial trip. The builder has stated that these boats passed Montauk Point at the time stated and that one was trailing the other, which was in accordance with the reports of submarines sighted."

WILSON ENDORSES MOVE

DISCUSS FURTHER
ARMY PREPARATION

Wilson and Head of Senate
Military Committee
Hold Conference

CONSIDER LEGISLATION

Baker and Leaders in Congress
Take Up Military Measures
Needed Immediately

DISCUSS TRAINING

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Plans to forward further preparedness measures for the army today began to assume definite form.

How an increased armed force may be promptly secured for the present emergency and universal training as a national policy were discussed by President Wilson with Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, chairman of the senate military committee.

Consider Legislation.

At the same time Secretary Baker and administration leaders in congress considered legislation needed immediately for the military establishment.

Senator Chamberlain told the president he believed the executive now has authority without further action by congress to raise at once an army of more than 700,000 men by increasing the regular army to war strength and calling out all of the National Guard at war strength.

There was no intimation that the president was considering such a step immediately but the whole field of measures necessary to secure a larger force was dismissed.

For present needs, the war department, Secretary Baker said, has decided to submit to congress a budget containing virtually the same provisions as the regular army appropriation bill which failed at the last session. Estimates for the expense in connection with an enlarged army or for any emergency activities will be presented later. This decision coincides with the house plan to renege the appropriation bill without change and send it at once to the senate.

Asks Wilson To Endorse Plan.

The conference between the president and Senator Chamberlain, the latter's request was primarily to discuss the senator's universal training plan. He asked the president to endorse the general principle of compulsory training in his forthcoming message to congress. The president was said to have given no indication of his probable course. He was said to favor some plan for providing military training, but was non-committal regarding the Chamberlain plan, to which he is understood to have some objections.

After leaving the White House the senator said he was still hopeful of administration endorsement of his measure.

As a result of his talk with the president, Senator Chamberlain expects to make several important amendments to his bill particularly the idea of increasing the number of trained soldiers it would produce in a short period.

To this end he proposes to raise the age limit of youths subject to training from 19 to 29 years to secure more mature men and to begin the training periods sooner than provided in the tentative bill which proposes that about 500,000 youths be trained annually with six months' continuous service.

Would Provide for Training.

Another amendment, Senator Chamberlain said, would be to create 36 divisions in the country for the segregation of the training work with facilities for training an army division of from 22,000 to 27,000 men, in each divisional camp.

The Oregon senator impressed upon the president that his plan would not entail the enormous expense of the army general staff training bill. He estimated that without providing costly permanent barracks at training camps and by having the students live in tents, the annual cost of training 500,000 men would be roughly $156,000,000. As to the measures necessary for increasing the army in emergency, Senator Chamberlain said that under existing law the president is authorized to increase the standing army to its war strength of 270,000, or with auxiliaries aggregating a regular force of about 300,000. The war strength of the National Guard was estimated at about 44,000 with all forces fully enlisted.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR
REVIEWS FOOD PRICES

Heaviest Increase in Last Four Years Shown in Potatoes

Report States Annual Food Bill of the Average Family Has Grown From $339.30 in 1913 to $425.54 at Present—Gives Some Reasons Suspected to Contribute to Increase.

Washington, March 29.—The annual food bill of the average family has grown from $339.30 in 1913 to $425.54 at present, the department of labor announced today in a review of food prices. In ten years the department's experts estimate the advance in the cost of food has so far outstripped wage increases that the workmen who drew $3 a day in 1907 now find themselves just 69 cents a day worse off.

Potatoes Show Heaviest Increase.
The heaviest increase in food prices during the last four years is shown in potatoes, the cost of which has risen from $18.96 to $44.69. Other large increases are in eggs from $33.01 to $43.07; flour $15.12 to $25.40; butter $45.72 to $54.78. Of the whole list of foods only sirloin and round steak are cheaper than five years ago.

In the period from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15 food prices took a four per cent jump. Onions led with a 77 per cent increase. Potatoes went up 30 per cent. Eggs alone decreased in price. It is estimated that if a dollar's worth of food bought in 1907 weighed ten pounds it would weigh today a trifle more than seven pounds.

"Despite the average increase of 19 per cent in wages an hour in the last ten years," says the department's statement, "and despite a cut in hours worked of four per cent, the rising cost of foods has operated to reduce the pay of the American workman about 16 per cent expressed in terms of his dollar bill. The workman who made $3 a day in 1907, working ten hours a day, in 1916 worked nine hours and thirty six minutes a day and drew $3.48 for it, but it cost him $1.17 to buy the same quantity of food his $3 would cover in 1907."

Rise at About Same Rate.
"The averages of food and pay, qualified by reductions in hours worked, rose at about the same rate from 1912 to 1915, so that during the time wages would pay for about even quantities of food each year. Actually workers enjoyed better conditions in 1915 than in 1912, because they had more and steadier work. But war losses put into the equation in 1916 and pushed up food prices faster than wages. There were some crop shortages also, which contributed their share. Besides this, however, there is no reason to fear that other elements are conspiring to raise prices."

"Cold storage, re-billing, re-shipping and withholding of commodities from market are suspected to contribute to the present abnormal rise in the prices of food. Whether some persons have conspired to engross the markets the department of labor cannot state. But the reports of the bureau of labor statistics seems to lend some color to such an opinion viewed in the light of conditions revealed by a comparison of figures thru a range of years."

EXPLAIN "QUARANTINE"
AS A PROPER COURSE

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Subjections of Americans of the Belgian relief commission to a "news quarantine" prior to their departure from behind the German lines was explained at the state department today as a proper course agreed upon when the relief workers were invited to remain in Belgium. Reports that Brand Whitlock, minister to Belgium, and other diplomatic officers also would be detained were not credited as assurances. This condition was accepted by the relief commission.

Washington explained that in view of the fact that members of the commission are in the fighting zone it was stipulated that they should, upon relinquishing their work, remain for a period of two or three weeks in some German city on their way to Switzerland in order to prevent the transmission of any fresh information. This condition was accepted by the relief commission.

GERMANY DOES NOT WANT WAR WITH U.S.

German Chancellor Makes Declaration in Speech in Reichstag

FEELS NO HATRED FOR U.S.

Asserts Germany Never Had the Slightest Intention of Attacking America

REVIEWS DEVELOPMENTS

BERLIN, March 29.—By Wireless to Sayville.—"Germany never had the slightest intention of attacking the United States of America and does not have such intention now. It never desired war against the United States of America and does not desire it today," was the declaration made by the German imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, in a speech in the Reichstag today. The chancellor made important declarations concerning Germany's policy toward the United States and Russia.

Reviews Causes of Warfare.
"How did these things develop?" asked the chancellor in speaking of the relations with the United States. He then proceeded to answer the question by reviewing the causes which led up to the German use of submarines in unrestricted warfare. Declaring that Germany had undertaken unrestricted submarine warfare for its defense, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg said:

"If the American nation considers this a cause for which to declare war against the German nation with which it has lived in peace for more than one hundred years, if this action warrants an increase of bloodshed we shall not have to bear the burden of responsibility for it."

Concerning German relations with the United States the chancellor whose speech is reported by the Overseas News Agency, (the German official news bureau) said:

"Within the next few days the directors of the American nation will be convened by President Wilson for an extraordinary session of congress in order to decide the question of war or peace between the American and German nations."

Does Not Desire Conflict.

"Germany never had the slightest intention of attacking the United States of America and does not have such intention now. It never desired war against the United States of America and does not desire it today."

"How did these things develop? More than once we told the United States that we made unrestricted use of the submarine weapon expecting that England could be made to observe in her policy of blockade the laws of humanity and international agreements. This blockade policy was a this I expressly recall has been called 'illegal and indefensible' (the imperial chancellor here used the English words) by President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing. Our expectations which we maintained during eight months have been disappointed completely. England not only did not give up her illegal and indefensible policy of blockade, but uninterruptedly intensified it. England together with her allies arrogantly rejected the peace offers made by us and our allies and proclaimed her war aims which aim at our annihilation and that of our allies."

"Then we took unrestricted submarine warfare into our hands; we had to for our defense."

"If the American nation considers this a cause for which to declare war against the German nation with which it has lived in peace for more than one hundred years, if this action warrants an increase of bloodshed, we shall not have to bear the responsibility of it. The German nation, which feels neither hatred nor hostility against the United States of America, shall also bear and overcome this."

Refers To Attitude Toward Russia.

The imperial chancellor also referred to Germany's attitude toward the recent events in Russia and recalled in former times the honored friendship between the two countries. He said however, that the friendship had ended with the death of Alexander II.

Emperor Nicholas had more and more drifted into the entente's wake and into pan-Slavic currents and had finally become a partisan of the war party omnipotent under the Russian autocratic regime.

"Thus," said the chancellor, "in the fateful days of July, 1914, the Russian emperor declined to listen to the appeal made by the German emperor. One of the legendary reports disseminated with especial emphasis by our enemies is that it was the German government which assisted the autocratic reactionary policy

LANDIS HELPS WITH LAW REGARD

Judge Landis in Chicago is consistently maintaining his position, taken sometime ago, that alien saloon keepers in Chicago who do not obey the Sunday closing law cannot secure final papers of citizenship. This order has come into considerably more prominence by the recent refusal of papers to 225 alien saloon keeper applicants. The judge declared that simply because these aliens had indicated that they were now observing the Sunday law since the orders issued by the mayor did not wipe out old offenses. This means that there must be five years of law observance to establish the right to citizenship in Judge Landis' court.

Like rulings by associates of Judge Landis in other cities will go a long way toward inspiring whole some respect for the laws of this land, both in native born citizens and aliens who are seeking to place themselves under the protection of this country.

RECRUITING ON HISTORIC GROUND

Just about the most fitting thing yet done in the campaign for increasing the enlistment in the army and navy is the opening of Independence Hall at Philadelphia as a recruiting station. This will be the sixth time that this historic structure has been used for recruiting purposes. The first instance was in the Revolutionary war, then in the conflict of 1812, the Mexican war, the war of the Rebellion and the Spanish-American war.

Men—old or young—who go to that edifice to offer their services to their country, must certainly feel that they are treading upon historic ground. In offering the building for recruiting purposes the mayor of Philadelphia used this patriotic language:

"The City of Philadelphia, always proud of its history, has to offer again the use of a room in this building, the birthplace of the nation, to the government of the United States."

The political recognition given women is certainly "catching," and even down in Mexico they have duplicated the example of the U. S. and have a woman congressman, Sen. Herlinda Galindo is the woman who will represent the fifth district of Mexico City and is to enter upon her duties at an early date. She has been identified with the suffrage movement for a considerable period and is thoroughly interested in reforms so greatly needed in Mexico.

FARM LOAN BANK BUSINESS INCREASES

The farm loan banks, which have not been looked upon with great favor in some localities, are now attracting more favorable attention and the indications are that the farm loan bank will have all the business it can well attend to in coming months. As previously announced, a flat rate of 5 per cent has been agreed upon. The farm loan act will not be of great benefit to landowners except in those states where interest rates are high. This does not apply to Illinois, but there are states where the mortgage rates are 9 and 10 per cent—figures that are almost prohibitive if the borrowers have any expectation of ever being able to pay off their loans.

In New Mexico the rate of interest on farm lands is 15-12 per cent; in Wyoming 10 per cent; Florida 9.5, Alabama 9.4 and Texas 9 per cent. In this connection figures given by the farm loan board as to land mortgages in various states are interesting: Texas lands are heavily mortgaged, the total being $184,321,000; Iowa lands are mortgaged for $169,065,000; Illinois lands carry loans of $35,802,000; Missouri, $223,197,000; Kansas, $179,706,000; Nebraska, $163,015,000; North Dakota, $199,364,000.

WAR AGAINST WAR

One of the most notable articles thus far, relating to the war, is published in the current number of McClure's. The subject is "War Against War," and an editorial note refers to it as an amazing record supposed to be written in 1923, a few years after the present world cataclysm. The name of the author is not revealed but he is evidently a man thoroughly familiar with the causes which led up to the present conflict, with the details of the world's progress and with a prophetic vision as to what the future holds as the results of this war.

The article is given in narrative style, and with the intense language of one who is dealing with affairs of vital importance to the welfare of the world. The writer pictures a secret meeting at sea of an ex-president of the U. S. with the king of England, the czar of Russia and the premiers of these three great countries. This meeting is supposed to have been arranged after a series of conferences running thru more than a year, in which the representatives of the U. S. has sought to bring about a sort of United States of the world, with the chief object of making war an impossibility. The idea of this group of world states is founded somewhat upon the system of the United States and the individual states.

As a result of this night conference at sea a document is drawn up briefly outlining a creed for the brotherhood of man, setting forth that there exists no real necessity for the enormous taxes levied for the support of armies and navies should be used instead for the welfare and best interests of the people. The other tenets of the supposed creed are of like tenor.

The article is interesting, too, in the suggestions made as to the possible division of territory and the incidents agreed upon as the result of the present war and the U. S. is seen as the greatest influence around that council board. Altogether "War Against War" is a very interesting story, essay, prophecy or whatever you may term it, and the second installment promises still greater interest for an editor's footnote suggests that the writer will prophesy Japan's proclamation against such a world amalgamation, and that another terrible war will follow, with the Mongolian races pitted against the Caucasians.

WIDE IN SCOPE, RED CROSS WORK

Thus far the middle west and the west must acknowledge that the east has far surpassed them in patriotic enthusiasm. The enlistments are much more numerous in the eastern states than in the west. In Philadelphia 100 physicians, unable to qualify for medical field service, have organized a physicians' motor corps and will provide an ambulance service the members furnishing their own automobiles. Women car drivers are joining in messenger motor service and in many other ways the people are giving manifestations of their patriotic spirit.

But the west is awakening and it will not be long until the scenes in the eastern cities are duplicated in states hereabouts.

The Red Cross society is a neutral organization which stands for humanity and relief. In the present world war the association has expended more than four millions for relief work. With events of such tremendous importance to the nation impending it is fitting, indeed, that the Red Cross movement is being extended and branches organized in every state and thousands of cities. As mentioned in these columns yesterday, the initial steps have been taken for the formation of a society in this city and work will no doubt be entered upon with enthusiasm. A leaflet circulated by the national organization gives the following facts:

"The Red Cross is the one agency for relief commissioned by the government in case of war or disaster. Red Cross nurses and doctors go into the field; but most important duties rest upon members at home. In time of war the Red Cross must equip and maintain field and base hospitals; find for anxious friends sick, wounded, and missing men; transport them with tender care to their homes; collect, prepare and distribute supplies.

"In time of peace it must be kept ready for immediate relief in case of disaster. The necessity for this was shown in the Galveston flood, the San Francisco fire, the Titanic wreck, Ohio floods, and eighty other disasters. In all of these, the Red Cross provided immediate shelter, food, clothing, and care for the sick, dying, and thousands upon thousands of people temporarily dependent, distributing more than $15,000,000 in money and supplies."

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

Wasted Chances

In every town are vacant lots with varied rubbish lumbered, producing cheap forget-me-nots, and cackles unnumbered. Year after year they go to seed, when Autumn winds are sighing, and every brand of noxious weed thereon is multiplying. If all those vacant lots were sown to parsnips, spiders and carrots, less often would we hear men groan in hunger stricken garrets. And here we see the nation's vice, the waste that has no ending; economy can cut no ice, while we have coin for spending. Why plow the weed-grown neighborhood, and plant the bean and tater? Our stand off at the store is good; we'll think of such schemes later. All winter, in our little town, some folks were nearly starving; some charity was handed down, some roosters for their carving. But not a lesson have they learned, their future course to sweeten: the coal we handed them is burned, the grub we gave is eaten. The spring is here, why look ahead? Why get the spade and grind it? And when again they're needing bread, the town will have to find it.

"The railroad managements have lived to rue the day of the 'public be damned' policy of a generation ago," said Mr. Atterbury, "but let the labor unions keep on with their present policy of damning first the public, then the president, then congress and finally the supreme court, the most sacred institution of our democratic government, and I am satisfied the public, thru their representatives will tie the labor unions, hand and foot in as radical a manner as the railroads find themselves today."

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

The Morgan County Medical Society Will Be Fifty Years Old In May.

Anyone who has information about any of the early doctors of this county, or of any Medical Meetings or Societies prior to 1866, will confer a favor by sending it to Dr. Walter Frank, secretary of the Morgan County Medical Society, 200 Ayers Bank Building, and it will be edited for this column.

Dr. Ero Chandler

The first physician to locate in what is now the city of Jacksonville was Dr. Ero Chandler. He was born in the state of Vermont in the year 1795 and at the age of nine years moved with his father's family to Ohio where he secured the education afforded by the schools of Ohio at that day. Dr. Chandler acquired his medical education in what was termed the quarterly schools of Ohio. Soon after the completion of this professional preparation he sailed forth away from home and friends, to seek his fortune in the then almost uninhabited west. Dr. Ero Chandler settled in what was to be Morgan county and the city of Jacksonville in the summer of 1821. This was before the county was organized or the town was laid out. It is related of him that he came into the settlement on a broken down horse and with but the suit of clothes that he was wearing.

He immediately began the practice of his profession. He erected his house and office on the ground that is now occupied by the office of Dr. Edw. Bowe on the corner of West State and Fayette streets. He was successful in his practice which was probably due to the unremitting care which he bestowed on his patients from the time he was called in until recovery was assured. When on pedestrian visits to his patients his clothing was not unfrequently rent by underbrush and briars. He was accustomed to borrow needle and thread and repair these damages himself.

His fees for medical service would be regarded as exceedingly moderate in these times, his charge for visits made on foot and not occupying a whole day being 75 cents. When a visit occupied a whole day and he had to borrow a horse to cover the distance, his charge was $1.00. But the doctor prospered with the growth of the country and eventually owned eighty acres of ground in what is now the city of Jacksonville.

Jacksonville. Dr. Chandler continued to practice his profession here until about 1835 when he moved to Warsaw, Hancock Co., Illinois, where he continued his activities until the close of his life on Feb. 24, 1883. His entire life was one of continuous activity and he was one of the very valuable early settlers of this community.

In addition to his professional work he was a public benefactor and was one of the principal movers in the establishment of the Female Academy, and donated the block of ground on which it was built and which is now occupied by the Conservatory. Dr. Chandler's name headed the list of subscribers to the fund for the new building with a promise of $150.00 which was a munificent sum in those days. He was also a member of the First Board of Trustees of the Female Academy. He was also active in church work and gave the ground upon which was built the first Presbyterian church in Jacksonville. This was located on the northwest corner of West State and Church streets. He also laid out a large addition on the west side of the town. Chandler's addition, a section bordered on the east by Church street, on the north by Court street, and on the south by Grove street.

A short time before leaving Jacksonville Dr. Chandler formed a partnership with Dr. Jones. The following is the notice of this partnership which appeared in the "Illinois Patriot."

NOTICE

DRS. CHANDLER & JONES have this day formed a Co-partnership in the practice of Medicine and Surgery.

Jacksonville, January 30, 1832.

This was probably the first partnership in medicine in this section. After leaving Jacksonville Dr. Chandler continued his activities in his new home. His memory is warmly cherished and his usefulness remembered by the early settlers.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT ARMORY TO HONOR COMPANY B

Militiamen Assured They Have the Interest and Support of Every Loyal Citizen of the Community—Veterans of Other Wars and Men of Younger Generations Joined in Demonstration—Resolution Adopted Declaring Answering Devotion to Flag and Country—Ready for Any Sacrifice

After the meeting at Armory hall last evening there is no question regarding the attitude of the people of Jacksonville when the honor of the country is at stake. Nobody wants war but the loyal citizens of Jacksonville do want the honor of the country preserved and they will do their part as was well evidenced last evening. Tho the meeting was a wholly impromptu affair very great numbers of citizens gathered about while many more went away unable to get suitable standing room even.

A goodly delegation of Matt Starr and we will one and all emulate their example and whatever may be the cost our country's honor will be defended."

G. A. R. Tasks Passed to Young

Geo. Paul, commander of Matt Starr post, G. A. R., was the next speaker. "In 1861 we were boys like you and then people said why send such children to the front but we went. More than 500,000 union soldiers were between the ages of 17 and 20 when they enlisted and they fought bravely. We did what we could and we stood by the stars and stripes to the best of our ability and now we hand over to the younger hands the great work and whatever may befall our land never let the stars and stripes be brought down."

Mayor Rodgers: "War is a serious matter and should be so regarded by us. I trust there will be none, but if it must come we will go into it with all our might. If Co. B. is called to the front they may rest assured the people of Jacksonville will stand loyally behind them. Our country first and always will be our motto."

The following communication was then read:

post G. A. R. marched to the hall under the lead of Geo. Paul, commander, and were warmly welcomed.

J. J. Reeve was chairman of the evening and before the audience was called to order the members of Co. B. were drawn up in line and the veterans of the war of the rebellion filed down the line and each one of the old boys shook hands with each one of the young boys and the scene was truly impressive.

People Ready for Full Duty
On taking the chair Mr. Reeve said in brief: "This is an impromptu meeting called to show the young men of Co. B. the great respect the of liberty. One year ago I declared here in the Reichstag that this assertion was directly contrary to the facts.

"When Russia in 1905, by the Japanese war and the resulting revolution had been involved in distress it was the German emperor, who, on account of personal relations of friendship, urgently advised the Russian emperor no longer to oppose the justified wishes of his nation for reforms. Emperor Nicholas preferred other roads. In Russia, had attention been concentrated on international reconstruction there would not have been room for restless policy of expansion which finally led to this war and which has changed the old regime so much that now it is even hard to do justice to natural human pity for the down-fallen house of the rulers.

Will Not Meddle With Affairs.

"How the Russian nation wants to construct its home is only the business of the Russian nation and we shall not meddle with it. The only thing that we hope is that in Russia foundations may develop that will make her the strong and firm bulwark of peace."

With reference to Chinese relations the chancellor said:

"Our relations with China had always been of the most friendly nature and if these relations have actually been terminated by the Chinese government I need not tell you that this is not by the free resolve of the Chinese government but that it has acted under pressure of our enemies.

"Financial difficulties which could not be mastered during the war by China also played a fair part in it. Our enemy's object also is to destroy our trade in China and to appropriate without labor what has been established there during many years by German efficiency and German industry. The result of the war * * * as I confidently hope * * * will give us the opportunity to rebuild what has been destroyed and to rebuild it at the expense of our enemies. Then our friendly relations with China will revive provided that China will preserve until then the necessary force of resistance against the greed and egotism of her present protectors."

WAR NEWS SUMMARIZED

For the first time since the British and French troops began their occupation of ground between Arras and Soissons, evacuated by the Germans a comparative calm has set in. The only advance recorded by the British or French war offices is the capture of the village of Neville Bourjonval, about ten miles northwest of Roisel, by the troops of Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig. Only artillery activity is reported from the front held by the French troops it still being quite violent in St. Champagne.

Along the eastern front in Russia the situation remains unchanged. Petrograd reports the repulse of Russian attacks along the Oukissa and Kobaynos rivers in Roumania but says the Russians put down an attempt by the Teutonic allies to advance along the Fokshani-Teculiu road.

The British forces operating in Palestine have made an advance of fifteen miles against the Turks, capturing the entire staff of the fifty third Turkish division including a general and nine hundred men.

Enver Pasha, the Turkish minister of war has visited German army headquarters to confer with Emperor William, Field Marshal Von Hindenberg and General Ludendorff, first quartermaster general.

The Austrians are keeping up their offensive against the Italians on the eastern front in the Austro-Italian theatre. After having for several days heavily shelled positions on the Carso front the Austrians delivered an attack, but met with repulse, according to the Italian war office. Nothing new has come thru concerning the operations in Macedonia.

YOUNG WOMEN TAKE UP RECRUITING PROBLEM

SALINA, Kans., March 29.—Young men of military age in Salina received calls today from military looking misses, clad in olive drab skirts, leggings and military hats, who asked them pointedly why they had not enlisted in one of the four companies of the National Guard with headquarters in this city.

The recruiting campaign here has been turned over in part to the young women of the city who declare that by Saturday night they will have called upon every young man of military age in Salina and the county to join the colors.

people of this community have for those who are willing to go forth to fight the battles of our country. We have had internal conflicts in our land but they are past and now we are united even as never before and while I trust there will be no war for us it comes the people of the land in general and our community in particular will not be found wanting. We did not seek this conflict and the government has used every reasonable effort to avoid it but it has been forced upon us. "Our government has begged Germany to respect the treaties of the past and has been treated with contempt and to endure more would be to forfeit our national honor and dignity. If need be it blood is to be shed we shall not hesitate to do our full duty. We can raise more soldiers than any nation on earth and there are none more brave and if driven to the conflict we will fight to the finish. I am proud of the old soldiers here and of the part they took in the saving of the land Morgan County Loyal Major McDougall: "We are here to do so as to provide an example of soldiers and assure them of our hearty support at all times. We are in earnest and we are proud of you boys and feel certain you will acquit yourselves with credit wherever you may be sent. We congratulate you on the quick response you made to the call to arms and we trust you will have the best the land can give you. Morgan county has always done her full share and always will. My first experience in war was at Shiloh. It was in the morning; we had received our first and last flour and I had cooked a large pile of pancakes and was just about to ask the boys to take hold when down the line came Gen. Prentiss telling us to fall in. I was second sergeant and my place was in the rear of the company. I had had no breakfast and while waiting for the order to march I slipped back, grabbed a cake and handful of brown sugar and was about to eat when we were boys gathered in the hall 19 years ago when he was but 17 and went to the Spanish war and then he little thought he would command such a company as the one here. He paid a glowing eulogy to Major Vickery and assured all that Co. B. would sustain the honor of the flag.

Captain Wright then led the audience in "Marching Through Georgia" the whole vast concourse joining in the chorus in a superb manner.

Resolution Adopted

Judge M. T. Layman then offered the following:
Resolved: That the people of Jacksonville pledge to the government of the United States their unswerving loyalty and hearty support in all times against encroachment of any foreign nation on our rights. We promise to stand by the flag of the Union and never let it trail in the dust at whatever cost of life and treasure. To this we pledge our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote and with three cheers for Co. B. the audience dispersed.

EXECUTE SALOON MEN FOR VIOLATING DECREE

JUAREZ, Mex., March 29.—General Francisco Murguia, commander of the northeastern military zone issued a decree March 23, ordering that all who sold liquors of any kind be put to death at once without trial. The decree is effective until April 1st.

Copies of this manifesto were received here today in letters from the state capital and it was said in one of these letters that the saloonkeepers at Chihuahua City had been executed for violating the decree.

ORDER SUBMARINE CHASERS HELD.

Chicago, March 29.—Two submarine chasers built by an Illinois company for the Mexican government and ready for shipment have been ordered held by the United States officials at Washington. The president of the company which built the boats said today the boats had not been commandeered, but simply ordered held.

apart and Germany be left relatively world supreme.

Military authorities here believe the most Germany expects now is a draw. Why she seems so indifferent to this country's entrance into the war causes much interest. Some officials predicted for more than a year that Germany would attempt understood moreover that the conflict at the last moment, first in order that her autocracy might save its face before the people by surrendering to the whole world, and secondly, because this country would probably be a generous enemy.

Manner of Participation Undecided.

With the United States drawn into the war thru no desire of her own and convinced that the war is a war of self-protection and self-preservation, the exact manner of American participation is undecided. The sending of an army to Europe or the provision of huge credit from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 are both being discussed. As for military participation nothing has been determined and decisions must await actual entrance into the war. At the same time, general alliances with the entente nations are not contemplated. The United States plans to maintain its freedom of action just as far as possible. In a naval and military sense there will, of course be full co-operation but beyond that the country will not assume unlimited liability for the allies' aims.

VILLA FORCES RETIRING.

El Paso, Texas, March 29.—Villa forces were retiring from the vicinity of Chihuahua City toward Santa Rosa, private advices received here from Chihuahua City late today said. These messages also confirmed Villa's defeat at Mapula Tuesday. Villa's reported retirement from the vicinity of Chihuahua City, ended four days of alarms within the city, the refugees said.

OVERWORKED MINISTER

Tells How Vinol Restored Strength and Vitality

Jacksonville people will realize that we could not publish such letters as the following if they were not genuine and truthful statements of facts. The Rev. Mr. Hughes, Holly Springs, Ark., says:

"I am a Methodist minister, and suffered from broken-down nerves, loss of appetite and sleeplessness. I was weak, my circulation was very poor, and I was not able to do my duty in my parish as I felt I should. I had tried various remedies but did not seem to get any better. Through Mr. Gatlin of Bearden, Ark., I learned of Vinol, and it built me up. I regained my appetite, can sleep better and do more work."

There is no secret about Vinol, it derives its power to build up the over-worked, broken-down, nervous system from beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, etc., which it contains.

Anyone in Jacksonville who wishes to try Vinol can do so with the understanding that we will return their money if they are not satisfied.

MUST REFUND
SWITCHING CHARGES

As a result of a hearing before the Illinois utility commission an order has been issued the C. P. & St. L. directing them to refund switching costs charged against W. B. Turnbull of Waverly. When the C. P. & St. L. increased the switching rate from Mr. Turnbull's elevator which is located on the C. P. & St. L. to the Burlington road, Mr. Turnbull filed the complaint with the commission. W. L. ALEXANDER WILL ERECT APARTMENTS

Contract Let to R. L. Gonsalves for Handsome Building on West State Street—Work Will Begin at Once.

The public generally will be greatly interested in knowing that the contract for W. L. Alexander's apartment house on the site of the Greenleaf home destroyed by fire, was let yesterday to Robert L. Gonsalves, formerly of this city and now of Hubbard Woods. The actual work of building will begin at a very early date, with the expectation of completing the structure sometime in August. There were four Chicago contractors and six Jacksonville contractors who made bids, and the Chicago men all underbid the local contractors. Mr. Gonsalves' contract does not include the painting, plumbing or heating. It is also exclusive of the hardware, electric fixtures and the Murphy beds and some other details of equipment. The building will be erected strictly in accord with the original plans.

The building, as previously described will be about 30 x 90 feet in general dimensions and will be three stories above an English basement in general dimensions and will be for the common use of the families occupying the three apartments. Mr. Alexander and family will move to Jacksonville this summer and will occupy one of the apartments, and the other two will be leased.

The exterior of the building will be of pressed brick and stone finish and the style of the architecture is such that the building will be an ornament to West State street and a credit to Jacksonville. The ground will be staked out today and actual building operations will probably begin next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, who are now in the city, will return to Chicago Saturday.

DON'T FORGET.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.
A Sheboygan (Wis.) paper tells of a case of ptomaine poisoning in the family of Prof. and Mrs. A. C. Shibe, resident there. Both Prof. and Mrs. Shibe and Miss Alice Meyer, a high school student, had eaten some canned corn which resulted in a severe case of poisoning. As the effects were early noted a physician was immediately summoned and it was the early care of the stricken people which prevented fatal results. Prof. Shibe is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shibe living on Jacksonville route 8 and is a brother of W. L. Shibe of this city.

EXISTS IN CAVALRY.
Paul Peters of Decatur, brother of Mrs. Clifford Alve, of this city, mentioned in the Springfield papers as one of the recruits in the cavalry service there. The young man, who lived in Jacksonville until a year ago, has many young friends here who will be interested in knowing that he is "going to war."

SEEKS FACTS ABOUT HIS FAMILY HISTORY

Decatur Man Here In Quest of Relatives

Known as Edward Bennett for Many Years He Now Wants to Know Real Name — Remembers There Were Other Children When He Was Given Into Care of a Neighbor.

Edward Bennett, now a citizen of Decatur and who was born in this city, was a visitor here yesterday. While the Decatur citizen is known as Edward Bennett, that is not his real name, and it was in an effort to ascertain his true name that the visitor came to Jacksonville yesterday. The story of his separation as a child from other members of his family and of his present desire to know the identity of his parents and it possible to locate some relatives are told in the man's own language.

Given to Care of Friend.
I was born in Jacksonville and as nearly as I can recollect somewhere east or southeast of the square. My given name was Edward but the name of my father has utterly gone from my memory. My father was a poor man, a laborer, with a large family. I remember I had one sister old enough to carry me about and there were some other children older and some younger than I. I suppose life was a hard struggle for my father and he gave me to a man named Bennett who agreed to do for me as for an own child as he had no children of his own. He drove an express wagon. He was a native of England and his wife was of Irish descent. He was a man about five feet eleven inches tall, not very stout, wore sideburn whiskers and moustache, was bald on top of his head, had rather dark hair, and was of ordinary complexion.

I remember he used to bring me with him sometimes on his wagon and leave me about the old courthouse under the trees in the square while he went about his work. I was so unwilling to stay with him that I was all the time running away so he moved to another part of town. He had a fine bird dog with which I made a fast friendship and whenever the front gate would be left open the dog and I would slip out and I would try to get back home but I was too small to get far and was always taken back and I don't know that I ever saw any of my family after being taken by Bennett.

Have Changed to Lincoln.
In a few months after taking me Bennett moved to Lincoln where I grew up. Mrs. Bennett fed and clothed me well and was not unkind but I had very few advantages. My little schooling was much interrupted by work and I grew up with hardly any education at all. When I was twelve Bennett said: I was fourteen and that was the last of my schooling or anything else. He put me to work in the mines. There I acquired those round shoulders that will always be with me.

When I was supposed to be 21 Bennett moved to Galesburg and with him I went to work in the C. R. & Q. boiler shops where I remained till he died a year or so after that. I think he had no relatives in this county and his wife had but one sister who died many years ago. I received the name of John Bennett by which I have ever been known. For some time I have been employed in the yards of the Wash at Decatur using the acetylene burner separating pieces of metal which have been cast off and parts of which may be of future use. I have to wear tin shields for my feet and legs and heavy leather apron in addition to protect me from the flying pieces of hot metal. I only work seven days a week and the worst feature of the situation is my eyes, which are giving out under the severe light of the flame which melts the metal. I have all reason to suppose I can hold my job as long as I wish but fear for my eyes.

Hopes to Find Relatives.
My one great wish is to find some trace of my family. I would be very thankful to any one who would give me any information which would help me find any brother, sister or other near relative. This is my first visit to Jacksonville since I left it and nothing at all is familiar to me. I shall go back to Decatur tonight and hope my visit will help me find some one of my flesh and blood.

The stranger bore every appearance of an upright, industrious man with a strong desire to find some one of his family. If any one has any possible information on the subject the same will be forwarded to Mr. Bennett if left at the Journal office.

THREE PLAYS GIVEN BY I. C. STUDENTS

Evening of Dramatic Interest at Auditorium of State School for Deaf—Casts Seen in Clever Work.

Three Tempting Trifles, pleasingly presented was the alliterative sentence that adorned the cover of the program of the plays presented by Illinois College students Thursday evening for the benefit of the Women's building. The plays were presented in the State School for the Deaf auditorium before a large audience.

While the trifles were pleasingly presented we take issue in the statement that they were trifles. A decade or more ago it was the fashion for some of our best known actors to present two or three, one act plays. Felix Morris gave the "Old Musician" and two others here and Robert Hilliard presented "The Little Girl" and one other play.

In this day of a movie mad public, plays of any character are a rarity much less one of this nature. However there is no more pleasing form of entertainment than one act plays. "The Florist Shop" by Winifred Hawkrige, "Joint Owners in Spain" by Alice Brown and "Colombine," a fantasy by Reginald Arkell, were offerings. The plays were produced under the personal direction of Miss Elson Barnes. The efforts of the members of the casts was such as to show that Miss Barnes is thoroughly capable in such work.

The Florist shop was the first play. This play has splendid character and was given with fine understanding by the cast. It has to do with the love affairs of a couple who has been "keeping company" for fifteen years. They were finally brought to a full realization of their feelings toward each other by the girl who worked in the florist shop, Miss Bernice Wheeler as Mauda, the girl in the shop, played the character to the manner born even to the chewing of gum. Pleasing interpretations were also given by Grace McLaughlin, Paul Watkins, Wayne Stead and Owen Jones.

The second play was Joint Owners in Spain. This play dealt with life in an Old ladies home. One can well imagine that such things could actually take place in real life. Lois Daniels as Mrs. Blake a militant woman and Helen B. Lee as Miss Dyer, a cringing and winning old maid furnished much of the comedy and were ably assisted by Marton Miller as Mrs. Mitchell and Lucy Gray Gatling as Mrs. Fullerton.

The Final Offering.
The last offering was Colombine a Fantasy. This was much more ambitious than either of the other plays. The lines had a rhythm that was most pleasing and they were given in an excellent manner. The burden of the work fell upon George Barrette, Ruth Badger and Clarence Goveia.

Mr. Barrett as Harlequin brought a splendid speaking voice to the part and read with fine effect. Miss Badger as Colombine was sweet and dainty but added to that intelligent interpretation. Clarence Goveia who assumed the role of Dan'l carried the comedy lines of the play and was seen to good advantage. James Barnes as Pierrot and Edward Tomlinson as Nathaniel did not having so much in the way of lines did their bits with understanding.

Taken in its entirety the evening was a source of real enjoyment and the efforts of the players were received with generous applause by the audience. The plays were staged well and in this respect the atmosphere was maintained at all times.

Active in arranging for the plays were, Publicity Committee, Louise Gapps, Miriam Russell, Charles Capps.

Scenery, Clarence Goveia.

Properties, L. C. Robinson, Fred Bray, Felix Farrell.

"INTOLERANCE" COMES NEXT WEEK

D. W. Griffith's latest spectacle, "Intolerance," which will appear at the Grand April 5, 6 and 7 is such an extraordinary theatrical offering that words fail to convey any idea of its magnitude and grandeur. Its marvelous spectacular effects, its human interest and its amazing reproduction of historical events. In "Intolerance," there are four separate stories, each with its own set of characters. Ancient Babylon, Judea of the time of Christ, Paris during the reign of Charles IX and a modern American city are the scenes of these stories. Such film stars as Mae Marsh, Robert Herron, Seena Owen, Margery Wilson, Miriam Cooper, Lillian Gish, Tully Marshall, and Bessie Love have the leading roles. A feature of the production is the musical score which is interpreted by a symphony orchestra of thirty.

For the past six months this Griffith masterpiece has been playing to crowded houses at the Liberty theatre, New York. Long runs in Chicago, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Los Angeles also evidence its remarkable popularity.

A full page announcement of this great attraction appears elsewhere in this paper.

YOUR FLAG AND MY FLAG

(By WILBUR D. NESBIT)

In St. Louis Globe

Your flag and my flag,
And how it flies today
In your land and my land
And half a world away!
Rose-red and blood-red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow-white and soul-white—
The good forefather's dream.
Sky-blue and true-blue, with stars to gleam aright—
The gloried guidon of the day; a shelter through the night.

Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat
And fifers shrilly pipe!
Your flag and my flag—
A blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie!

Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute and ripples to the sound!

Your flag and my flag!
And oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—
Red and blue and white.

The one flag—the great flag—the flag for me and you—
Glorified all else beside—the red and white and blue!

SPECIAL SERVICES IN CHURCHES NEXT WEEK

Interest Grows in Campaign of Personal Evangelism—Religious Census Cards Help.

In announcing special meetings which will be held simultaneously in most of the churches of Jacksonville during the coming week, Rev. A. A. Todd, secretary of the Ministerial association, made the following statements: "Commencing with April 1st practically all of the churches of Jacksonville will inaugurate special services of some character, and it is the hope that the invitations of the several churches will be responded to heartily by the public and that the attendance may be large.

"Increasing interest is being shown in the campaign of personal evangelism now being conducted in this city. The laymen are visiting the people of the city and extending to them the invitation to attend the church of their choice. The religious census cards are of great assistance to the pastors and churches in this work. It is hoped that the Christian people of the city will lend every effort toward bringing the unsaved into the Kingdom and into the churches of the community.

Hold Membership Elsewhere.

"It has been a surprise to the workers to learn how many people there are here who are church members somewhere else, one denomination alone reporting more than 100 in this class. Some state that they do not wish to unite with the church here because they do not know how long they will be residents of Jacksonville. Why not place your letter with your denomination here and thus lend your support to the cause? The attendance at our churches is not what it ought to be by any means, and most of those who attend regularly are avowed followers of the Lord. As a representative of the churches of Jacksonville I would urge upon you your sacred duties—'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might'—Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.

"The Eastertide brings to our minds the wonderful miracle of the resurrection of Jesus. But this glorious event was the consummation of hours of supreme agony and suffering. It is especially fitting at this time for saint and sinner to come together in some place of worship. Attend the church of your choice during the week of April 1 to 8 inclusive, and you will be able to join with David in saying: 'I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord'."

WATER SURVEY REPORT WILL COME SOON

Outline Has Been Drafted and Early Statement is Expected From Urbana

According to announcement made yesterday morning, the report of the state water survey on the recent investigation of the local water sources and conditions will be received here within a very short period. This fact was made known by Engineer Habermeyer, who was here Thursday to obtain some samples of water necessary before a complete report could be made.

The work of the water survey has been delayed somewhat in recent days because of sickness among office employees and due also to the necessity for making reports to the government on water conditions at sites of the proposed munitions and armor plate plants to be situated in the Mississippi valley in this state.

The report on the local situation has already been drafted and when it has been revised and typewritten will be forwarded at once to this city. Previous to the final revision of the report Mr. Habermeyer expects to consult with Mr. Hanson of the board of health, and Director DeWolf of the geological survey.

While the department was at this fire an alarm came into headquarters from John Frank's bakery 618 North Prairie street. The department had to travel a distance of over a mile to reach the Frank fire which was a long hard run. Fortunately there was a chemical in the bakery and the fire was kept under control until the arrival of the department.

The blaze started in a false roof over the oven. It is not known what caused it. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

RED CROSS SEAL SALES LARGEST ON RECORD

Prize for Consolidated Schools Awarded to David Prince School—Morgan County Leads Counties of Same Class on Per Capita Basis

All Illinois records were smashed to small bits during the recent Red Cross Seal campaign according to an announcement today by the Illinois Tuberculosis Association.

The total number of seals sold in this state during the 1916 campaign was 6,291,856 compared with 5,109,428 in 1915. Assisting in the sale were 41 local tuberculosis societies, 76 women's clubs, and other volunteer agents. Included in the latter were hundreds of doctors, ministers, nurses and thousands of school children.

Morgan county, with a sale of 76,128 seals, led the state on a per capita basis for counties having a population of between 30,000 and 50,000.

The prize for consolidated schools was awarded to the David Prince school, at Jacksonville, which with an enrollment of 268 pupils sold 10,383 seals, or 38.7 per pupil.

Wood River, Madison county, led the entire state in per capita sale, the agency there under the leadership of Mrs. M. F. Manning, disposing of 59 seals for every man, woman and child in the town.

Pennants, banners and other prizes were awarded as follows:

Sangamon county, with a sale of 312,115 seals, led the state on a per capita basis for counties having a population of over 50,000.

Bond county, led the state on a per capita basis for counties having a population less than 30,000, with a sale of 4,207 seals.

Springfield, with a sale of 285,523 seals, led all cities with a population over 40,000 on a per capita basis.

Elgin with a sale of 135,170 seals led all cities on a per capita basis for towns having a population of 20,000 to 40,000.

Kankakee, with a sale of 29,933 seals, led all cities with a population of 10,000 to 20,000 on a per capita basis.

Edwardsville, with a sale of 14,485 seals, led all cities with a population of 5,000 to 10,000 on a per capita basis.

Lake Forest, with a sale of 46,125 seals, led all towns on a per capita basis for towns having a population between 3,000 and 5,000.

Dundee, with a sale of 25,862 seals, led all towns having a population between 1,000 and 3,000 on a per capita basis.

Antioch, with a sale of 6,264 seals led all towns with a population between 300 to 1,000 on a per capita basis.

Lake County, with a sale of 3,329 seals per capita in 1916 compared with its sale of 74 per capita in 1915, made a larger per capita increase than any county.

Wood River, with a per capita sale of 59 seals in 1916 made a larger per capita increase than any town.

POISON, SELF GIVEN, WAS CAUSE OF DEATH

Coroner's Jury So Found in Investigating Case at Jacksonville State Hospital—Woman Came From Decatur Monday

The coroner's jury to inquire into the death of Miss Frances L. Florey returned a verdict Thursday that death was caused by poison taken with suicidal intent.

The jury convened Wednesday but adjourned in order that the testimony of Mrs. Laura Peters a sister and Miss Weaver a nurse both of Decatur might be taken. Their testimony did not throw any light on the matter than was given in the Journal of Thursday morning.

The deceased was a trained nurse and evidently suffered a nervous breakdown from overwork. There was nothing to indicate, however, that she was deranged and it would seem that she should have been placed in a hospital in Decatur instead of being brought here for treatment at Jacksonville State hospital.

The remains will be taken to Decatur for burial.

FARM NOTES
MUCH WHEAT WINTER KILLED.
Have examined a large number of wheat fields in various parts of the county during the past two weeks and have found large number of fields of soft wheat that were seeded on late plowed light soils, to be badly winter killed; in fact many fields will be a total loss. Wheat on heavier soils as well as on the protected fields on light soils, show much less winter killing and gives promise of fair crop with favorable season.
One very noticeable feature in regard to the wheat is that "Turkey Red" and similar hard wheats have stood the winter far better than the soft wheats, a fact that was demonstrated in this county one year ago following which we mailed our Farm Bureau members a circular letter recommending that they use these varieties.
Wheat seeded with press drills is damaged far less than that seeded without the press attachment. In one field on Mr. John Bierker's farm near Conover, farmed by Mr. Edwards, where two different makes of drill were used, you can plainly see where the press left off. Mr. Edwards' wheat on the whole, however, is quite good having been sown on well prepared early plowed land.
Wheat on fields exposed to west and north west winds are badly killed and especially is this true on fields drilled east and west as this gave wind a chance to blow soil away from the wheat, while in many instances where the wheat was drilled north and east and sand filled in the drill rows and served as protection.
Many fields of wheat that were too dressed with straw or manure early in the winter have come thru in good condition. This is well demonstrated on a few acres in a field on Chas. Williams' farm in Killebuck Twp.; also on the farm of Chas. Roll in Salt Creek Township.
As a result of these demonstrations we feel that had farmers who owned straw spreaders spread all their surplus straw early in the winter, they would have paid for their machines many times over in this year's wheat crop.
Considerable interest is being shown at this time by a large number of our Farm Bureau members, in pure bred stock. Mr. W. H. Knuppel, and W. H. Gathmann of Forest City Twp., made a trip thru Iowa the past week where they purchased a number of pure bred Hereford cows, also a fine pure bred bull. Hereford cattle seems to be taking the lead in Mason county and with

GETS PLEASURE FROM MEALS NOW
Miss Mercer Attributes Recent Big Change to Taking Tanlac
WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD
Belleville Woman Places High Value on New Medicine Because of Benefits
REFRESHED IN MORNINGS

Belleville, Ill., March 29.—"It's a fact that until recently I couldn't eat a thing without my stomach swelling and bloating so badly and causing me such intense misery that I could hardly stand it. It also is true that since taking this new medicine, Tanlac, I don't seem to be able to get enough to eat and everything agrees with me just fine. I'm never bothered with bad effects after meals now."
This statement was made on March 8 by Miss Bertha Mercer, 208 South Jackson street, this city.
"My stomach was all out of order," Miss Mercer continued. "I also was very restless and nervous. The least noise would excite me. I suffered from severe headaches for two or three days at a stretch. I just thought sometimes that the ache never would let up."
"It seemed that Tanlac toned up my stomach right away. I can eat anything I care for now, and lots of it, too, without any trouble afterward. The nervousness has disappeared and I sleep soundly and peacefully all through the night and get up in mornings feeling refreshed. I'm never bothered with headaches now."
"Tanalac has been worth its weight in gold to me and I want others to know about such a medicine. I hope somebody will be helped by my statement."
"Weakened, nervous, run-down men and women who suffer from headaches constantly and feel tired and worn out all the time will find Tanlac just what they need," the Tanlac Man told inquirers at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. yesterday. "Tanalac quickly brings new strength and better health."
Tanalac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug Co. East Side Store, where a specially trained Tanlac expert is explaining the new medicine to the public daily.
Tanalac also may be obtained at the West Side Store of the Coover-Shreve Drug Co.—Adv.

such men as John Knuppel, W. H. Gathmann, W. H. Knuppel, Frank Shute, John Shute, J. H. Deverman, D. B. Thomas, Elzie Mann, Ed. Smith, Will Lineweber, we feel that Mason county can soon boast of having a large number of herds of pure bred Herefords.
Our Percheron Breeders are also doing things. Gillmore Bros. of Forest City sold five pure bred horses the past week. They also sold a pure bred filly early in the fall that went to the University of Illinois to be used in Prof. Edmonds' feeding experiment with pure bred Percheron fillies. This speak well of the Gillmore horses, but as the boys are only satisfied with the best we are not surprised.

More Holsteins to Louisiana
The other day Adolph Nierthamer of Pekin shipped a couple of Holsteins to Louisiana and he has another Holstein heifer to ship as soon as she is old enough. The party who is getting these is starting a Holstein herd in the south and these purchases of foundation stock were made thru the Farm Bureau. During the last month we have been getting information together thru the Illinois Agricultural Association of 11 organized counties to supply Utah farmers with a load of pure bred cattle thru the Farm Bureau organizations in that state.

Farm Records This Year
We are putting in this week taking summaries of the farm records showing the business of about fifty farms on prairie land. Most of these are Farm Bureau members near Washington, where the records have been taken for two years. There are some others in other parts of the county. Two men from the University are working on these. H. C. M. Case worked here last year and he is assisted by H. O. Watrude. We find some of the members have kept very complete records of their farm business. In other cases we have had to fill in some of the details as well as possible from whatever other accounts the man may have. These records are showing up some wonderful differences in results, according to little variations in management. Along with these farm records we are getting in quite a number of records on the cost of raising hogs. Some of these records are going to show returns of over $2 a bushel for all the corn fed to hogs in one last year after allowing full value for everything else. On other farms the return is not over half as much, showing the results of different management. In all cases, the main reason for the difference in results are brought out by the records, so that it is possible for a man making a poor record one year to see how to improve his business the next year.

Series of Township Meetings
Last week we had a series of meetings in the most important towns in the county. At some places there was not a very big crowd because of the nice weather to work in the fields. The series wound up with a big meeting at Washington on Saturday afternoon when we talked over various problems connected mainly with the corn and oats crops for two or three hours. At this meeting, W. Danforth, President of the Illinois-Missouri-Arkansas Farm Loan Bank was present and explained the working of the new farm loan system. He said that applications were already in for between one and two million dollars in loans and the other day a man sent in a check for $200,000 to buy the first issue of a farm loan 1 per cent bonds.
At a number of meetings we had great interest shown by the various members and the discussion went on for three hours or more. It was interesting to note that most of the men who are getting the most accomplished in the way of introducing new methods onto their farms are the most anxious to adopt any good profit. It shows that the members who are getting the most out of the Farm Bureau are the ones who are trying the hardest to use the various new methods and principles which are brought to attention. Some new members were added last week and arrangements made to take in a few more. Different members have reported quite a number of their neighbors who are interested in the Farm Bureau work and plan to join.

E. T. Robbins, County Agricultural Agent.

WANT NO STRIKES IN WAR TIMES

Washington, D. C., March 29.—Steps to prevent the fomenting of strikes and the inciting of laboring men to riot, in case of war, are to be outlined by the executive council of the National Civic Federation at a meeting opened here today in conjunction with the Advisory Committee of the National Council for Defense.

In announcing its plans the Federation asserts that the action is taken because of the great need of some such movement in view of the publicly announced intention of certain radical organizations to promote strikes and riots in every manufacturing locality in which they can gain a hearing. Action is also planned because of the experience in England, where it was found that after the South Wales miners' strike, involving 2,000,000 workmen, the only means of settling and preventing strikes was through such voluntary efforts, the Munitions Compulsory Act having proved entirely futile.

The first step will be the offering by the mediation department of the federation of a plan whereby conciliation committees, composed jointly of employers, labor leaders and representatives of the public, are to be formed in every industrial center.

The welfare department of the federation will offer a plan designed to assist in conserving the health of the wage earners and to relieve the strain and tension under which they will very likely have to work under war conditions.

DON'T SCOLD MOTHER! THE CROSS CHILD IS BILIOUS, FEVERISH

Look At Tongue! If Coated, Clean Little Stomach, Liver, Bowels

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish—full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.—Adv.

WILL BUILD MONUMENT IN HONOR OF BUFFALO BILL

Association Started to Raise Big Fund for A Memorial to Former Scout

By A. U. MAYFIELD
(Secretary to Col. Cody Memorial Association)

It was Col. W. F. Cody's (Buffalo Bill) request that, when the "trail grew dim and the eternal night settled down over his earthly career," the whispering pines, on a prominence in the Rocky Mountains, overlooking the great plains for hundreds of miles—the plains he helped redeem from a savage race.

So, in accord with his wishes, the family have decided to bury Buffalo Bill on Lookout Mountain, about eighteen miles west of Denver, near Colorado point, just off the main Lincoln highway, where thousands of people may pass and see the grave of this great old scout.

The burial of the remains of Col. Cody will be made on Sunday, June 3, 1917, which is the Sunday following the Great Army Decoration day, and thousands of people from all over the United States will be at the funeral. The funeral will be conducted by the Masonic lodge. The lodge at North Platte, Neb., of which Colonel Cody was a member, has requested that the Denver Masons conduct the services.

For the purpose of erecting a fitting monument to the memory of this beloved scout, the Col. W. F. Cody Memorial association of Denver was incorporated, with twenty-five representative men, as members of the board of trustees. With them it is a "labor of love," and none receive a cent for their efforts, the mere incidental expenses being the extent of the cost for raising this fund.

Want $200,000 Fund

It is the desire of the association to raise the sum of $200,000. The monument to be erected will be on the order of a great mausoleum, in which hundreds of the most interesting relics of Col. Cody may be placed on exhibition, including the famous stage coach, guns, suits, saddles, U. S. saddlebags, used in his "pony express" career, scalp of Indians, etc. These will all be free to the thousands of tourists and visitors from all nations.

It is suggested that a great public park, in which dozens of genuine buffalo are to be kept, spreading back over the mountain side and down into the foothills, be maintained. This would typify the earlier days of the plains. The great monument could serve as a harmonious and appropriate setting to the background. Already several offers to furnish the finest buffaloes in the land have been made, free of charge. Buffalo Bill was a national character. Every schoolboy and every schoolgirl in America have heard of him, or have seen him. He lived during at least three generations; and the United States of America, as one man, will join in this movement—this popular subscription by children as well as by men and women who want to pay some part of a tribute to the memory of the Chief of American scouts—the last of his kind.

ANNAPOLIS CLASS GRADUATED.

Annapolis, Md., March 29.—One hundred and seventy-two additional officers became available to meet the shortage in naval personnel today, with the graduation of the first class at the United States Naval Academy. The graduation, ordinarily taking place in June, but was advanced three months to meet the exigencies of the occasion. For the same reason the second class, which in the usual routine would not receive its diplomas until June, 1918, will be graduated next September.

The program of today's exercises was stripped of all the social brilliancy that for years has been associated with the "June exercises" at the Naval Academy. No special ceremony attended the occasion. Following a parade of all the cadets the members of the graduating class were drawn up in review and received their diplomas from the hands of Captain E. W. Eberle, superintendent of the academy. Frederick W. Haerberle of California was the honor man of the class. The class president was Clarence O. Ward, who was appointed to the academy from the enlisted ranks of the navy.

CENTRAL A. A. U. TRACK MEET.

Chicago, Ill., March 29.—Stunts by athletes that probably will thrill athletic fans for a long time to come are promised at the annual meet for the indoor track and field championships of the Central A. A. U. The meet will be held in the Second Regiment armory in this city, unless the authorities are obliged to revoke their permit for the use of the armory, in which case the next best place available will be chosen for the event. The junior championships are to be contested tomorrow night and the senior events on Saturday. Fourteen track and field events have been scheduled with relay races for academics, high schools and colleges.

DID IMPORTANT PARK WORK YESTERDAY

Mr. Kooyers of Holland, Michigan, spent yesterday looking over Duncan and Central parks and preparing plans and specifications for suitably remodeling them. His work was of much value to the park board and the hope is that weather and conditions will enable the board to carry out his valuable ideas. He will devote a part of today to the board and expects to leave on the 11:25 Altan train for the north. He is a very pleasant gentleman to meet and his visit here has made him friends who will remember him most kindly for a long time to come. He generously gives his valuable time and advice, merely asking his expenses for the trip.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Miss Margaret G. De Baca, daughter of the late Governor of New Mexico, will be the sponsor of the new superdreadnaught, New Mexico, now under construction at the New York Navy Yard, and which is to be launched late next month.

Uncle Sam's ambassador at Tokio for the present is Mrs. Hallie Ermine Rives-Wheeler, wife of Charge d'Affaires Post Wheeler, who since the death of Ambassador Geo. W. Guthrie has been at the head of the American Embassy in the Japanese capital. Mrs. Wheeler under her maiden name of Hallie Ermine Rives, has quite a reputation as a novelist, and is a cousin of the famous Amelia Rives, author of "The Quick and the Dead," now Princess Troubetzkoy. Like the princess, Mrs. Wheeler is a native of Virginia, of old F. F. V. stock. The Wheelers were married at Tokio in 1906, when Mr. Wheeler was secretary of the embassy.

Dean Ada Comstock of Smith College has been mentioned as the possible successor of President Marion LeRoy Burton, who on July 1 will become president of the University of Minnesota. Miss Comstock has been dean at Smith since 1912. She is a native of Moorhead, Minn., and was herself once connected with the Minnesota institution as dean of women. She has studied at the University of Minnesota, at Smith and at Columbia, and began her academic career as an instructor in rhetoric at the University of Minnesota.

Miss Toshiko Sakamaki, a young Japanese woman, is on her way to the United States to preach Shintoism, the great Japanese religion of ancestor worship, to the Americans. She will settle in Los Angeles, and while her initial efforts will be to revive Shintoism among her numerous countrymen in California, she will strive principally to convert Americans to her ancient ancestral faith. She explains her mission as that of endeavoring to counteract the tendency of young Japanese women of the present to neglect the beautiful manners and customs, so courteous and refined, of the old Japanese civilization. She is the first Japanese woman Shinto missionary to America.

A "Dixie drive" is to be started by the National Woman's Party April 1, through thirteen states which have not yet been fully organized by the party and which are the strongholds of the Democratic party. Miss Maud Younger, a woman voter of California, is to be in charge of the drive, which will be conducted entirely by motor. Mass meetings will be held in the principal towns and cities of all the states visited, and state conventions of the newly organized branches of the woman's party will be held at the state capitals. The states to be visited include Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, West Virginia and Maryland. In preparation for the trip, several organizers are now "on the road" in advance of the party leaders. They include Miss Vivian Pierce of California, Miss Beulah Amidon of North Dakota, Mrs. St. Clair Thompson of North Carolina, Miss Doris Stevens of Nebraska, Miss Mabel Vernon of Delaware and Miss Lucy Branham of Maryland. The southern trip will not be concluded until June 3, and while it is going on legislative activities and organizations of conferences will continue in many other parts of the country. It is the purpose of the National Woman's Party leaders to have every congressional district well organized and every congressman posted by his constituents as to how he stands in regard to the Federal suffrage amendment by the time the regular session of Congress convenes and takes up business other than that of war matters.

Don't Cough All Night

It wears down your strength, racks your nerves, keeps yourself and all the family from sleeping. Besides, you can easily stop it with Foley's Honey and Tar.

A standard family medicine of many years standing for lagrippe and bronchial coughs and colds, tickling throat, hoarseness, stuffy, wheezy breathing and for croup and whooping cough. Its effect on the inflamed lining of the throat and air passages is quickly felt and very soothing.

Enos Halbert, Paoli, Ind., writes: "I coughed continually and at night could hardly sleep. Foley's Honey and Tar relieved me, and one bottle cured my cough entirely."

City Drug Store,

WHY SUFFER SO?

Why suffer from a bad back, from sharp, shooting twinges, headaches, dizziness and distressing urinary ills? Jacksonville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Could you ask for stronger proof of merit?

Mrs. Katherine Osterholt, 330 W. North St., Jacksonville, says: "My rest at night was badly broken on account of severe pains in my back. I actually could not get into a position where I could lie in comfort. The kidney secretions were unnatural and I had such bad headaches that little specks seemed to float before my eyes. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of the trouble. The cure has been permanent, as I have never had any return of it."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mrs. Osterholt. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE VERY BEST TIME to take Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery is now, if you feel that your blood is out of order. Don't wait until you have to cure disease; it's easier and better to prevent it.

With the first blotches or eruptions, or the dullness, weariness, and depression that are some of the symptoms, you need this medicine. It will rouse every organ into healthy action, thoroughly cleanse and repair your system, and build up needed flesh, health, and strength. It's the only reliable blood remedy. In the most stubborn Skin or Scalp affections; in the worst forms of Scapula; in every disease caused by a torpid liver or impure blood—it never fails to benefit or cure.

The machinery of the body needs to be well oiled. Keep in good condition just as the automobile, steam engine or bicycle. Most people neglect themselves. To clean the system take a pleasant laxative, such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. For sale by druggists—25 cents a vial.

Sudden Death

Before an insurance company will take a risk on your life the examining physician will test your water and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout, or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night—take heed, before too late!

You can readily overcome such conditions and prolong life by taking the advice of a famous physician, which is: "Keep the kidneys in good order, avoid too much meat, salt, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking Auric, in tablet form." You can obtain Auric at drug stores, the discovery of Dr. Pierce of Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo.

"Kie-Yie-Yie! Get Me 'Gets-It' Quick!"

2 Drops Make Corn "Fall" Off!

"I've joined the Never-Again Club. Never again will I use anything for corns but 'Gets-It'." Put 2 drops of 'Gets-It' on, and from that second the corn begins to shrivel.

"Oh, Don't Touch It! It's So Sore!" "Use 'Gets-It' and It Will Never Hurt!"

Instead of swelling up like a little white sponge. Then it loosens from your toe—and, glory hallelujah! the corn comes off as though you'd take a glove off your hand!

Yes, "Gets-It" is the corn discovery of the age. More "Gets-It" is sold by many times than any other corn remedy in existence. Try it and you'll know the reason why. It takes two seconds to apply it, and it dries at once. That's all. Don't experiment—follow the experience of millions and use "Gets-It."

"Gets-It" is sold everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Armstrong's drug store, Coover & Shreve and J. A. Obermeyer.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS DISCUSS PROBLEMS

Prominent Speakers Scheduled to Talk on Themes of Importance to Cities—Trips to Points of Interest Planned.

Chicago, March 29.—City problems from the disposal of garbage to the beautifying of boulevards, from methods of issuing bonds to plans for bettering childhood environment are to be discussed at the annual convention of the League of Illinois Municipalities which began its session here today.

James E. Harley of Aurora, president of the organization welcomed the delegates who represent nearly every city of importance in the state as well as a great number of villages.

Divisional meetings devoted to the several problems of city officers occupied most of the day. The evening program calls for round table discussions of "Home rule for cities," "play-grounds and recreations," "street constructions," "regulation of public utilities," and "weights and measures," as well as addresses on "City Wastes Collection and Disposal," by Prof. Paul Hanson, of the University of Illinois; "Some Municipal Problems," by William R. McCabe state representative from Lockport; and "City Managers," by Oliver L. Watson of Chicago.

The annual election of officers is set for Friday morning when the delegates are to visit the city hall. In the afternoon a formal welcome to Chicago is scheduled from Mayor Thompson while John W. O'Leary, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce is to welcome the delegates to the city on behalf of the business men. The Friday afternoon program also contains addresses on the "Health of Citizens," by Dr. John D. Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago; "City Planning," by Charles H. Robinson of Rochester, N. Y.; "Relations of City government to state government," by former Governor E. F. Dunne; "Pensions," by J. J. Barbour, state senator of Chicago, and "Proposed State Road Legislation," by S. E. Bradt, DeKalb, Ill., commissioner of highways.

Among the speakers scheduled for Friday evening are: United States Senators Lewis and Sherman; Mayor Thompson; former Governor Dunne; Lieut. Gov. Oglesby, State senator Kessinger of Aurora, Henry Rathbone president of the Hamilton club, Mayor Bennett of Rockford; Mayor Barber of Joliet and Professor Fairlie of the University of Illinois.

"Chicago's problems" will be discussed Saturday by Alder J. Schwartz, "City Managers" by H. M. Darling, "Zoning" by G. J. Guernsey and "Sanitation" by F. D. Gore, all of Chicago.

Various trips to points of interest have been planned by the city entertainment committee for the visiting delegates and other delegates.

VANITY FAIR A GOOD SHOW.

Manager Johnson has given Grand theater patrons many good musical tabloids but Vanity Fair presented by Jack Trainor and company which opened a three days engagement Thursday afternoon is the best of all. Local people have paid a dollar and half per to see many alleged comic operas that were not near up to the standard of Vanity Fair.

Jack Trainor is a good comedian and of course the show is built around him. He creates fun throughout. However, it must not be thought that he is the whole show.

His supporting company is excellent. Special mention should be made of Olga DeBaugh, Ethel Walker and Julius Jenkins. There are some excellent voices in the company and some tuneful airs. The chorus can, and does, sing and dance well and added greatly to the performance. The company carries enough scenic effects for a big show and the settings are pretty and appropriate. Bert Galloway the musical director puts lots of "pop" into the music and the orchestra did splendid work under his direction.

The company appears today and Saturday in matinee and night performances. It is well worth a visit to the Grand to hear Trainor and his company and if you go once you probably will go again.

BIG SCHOOL RUN BY Y. M. C. A.

Boston, Mass., March 29.—The technical and professional schools of the Boston Young Men's Christian association, started twenty years ago in a very small way and now incorporated as the Northeastern College, will celebrate their anniversary tomorrow by an educational program of great interest to educators and by the installation of Dr. Frank P. Speare as president. The college now embraces a school of liberal arts, a school of law, a school of commerce and finance and a school of engineering, all of which are conducted as night schools, together with a school of co-operative engineering, which is a day school. From these schools during the past twenty years there have been turned out more than forty thousand students, a record surpassed only by the largest universities. There are now more than seventeen hundred students in the college, nearly all of whom are studying evenings and working during the day.

U. S. BIG GUNS MADE AT WATERVLIET ARSENAL

Establishment Has Been in Existence for Hundred Years—Work Now at Most Active Stage in History

Troy, N. Y., March 29.—A glare of light coming from a string of mammoth workshops stretching along the banks of the Erie Canal near this city tells the passerby that these are busy nights as well as busy days at the Watervliet Arsenal, where Uncle Sam makes the largest and most powerful guns intended for the protection of our shores from an attack by the enemy. Never before in the long history of Watervliet has the machinery of the big workshops hummed a livelier tune than at present. Hundreds of additional workers have been taken on during the past few weeks and for the first time within the memory of the oldest employe the great plant is being operated at its fullest capacity.

War activities are not new to Watervliet, which has been engaged in turning out guns or other equipment for the United States military and naval forces for a round one hundred years. The present year, in fact, marks the centennial of the Watervliet arsenal in name altho an arsenal had existed on the same site several years earlier. It was in the early part of the War of 1812 that the first land for the arsenal was purchased. It was then called "the arsenal near Albany" or "the arsenal at Gibbonsville," and was used as a warehouse for the storage of munitions. In 1817 it became the Watervliet arsenal.

First Used for Storage
The first buildings were erected for the storage of ammunition and the manufacture and repair of small arms and infantry equipments. In 1849 the arsenal had 300 employes. During the civil war it had as many as 2,000. At that time it was used for the storage of cannon, and small arms, and the manufacture and repair of equipments, etc.

In 1883 an act of Congress appointed a commission of army and navy officers to determine which navy yard or arsenal would be the best location and best adapted for the establishment of a Government foundry. The board recommended such an establishment at Watervliet.

Congress having failed to appropriate the necessary funds to carry out the recommendations of this board, the Secretary of War, March 21, 1887, appointed a board of ordnance officers to examine which of the arsenals, Watertown, Watervliet or Frankford, was best fitted for large gun making. The decision favored Watervliet, and steps were taken to prepare Watervliet for the manufacture of cannon.

March 20, 1888, Congress appropriated $7,000,000 for the erection, purchase or manufacture of necessary buildings and equipment for a gun factory at the arsenal. Subsequent appropriations amounted to between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. The first work at the new gun factory was an eight-inch gun completed in the latter part of 1889. The first twelve-inch gun was completed in February, 1891.

Every Part a Quality Part In the Chalmers

Chalmers puts quality materials and quality workmanship into every piece of every Chalmers car. Therein lies the difference between the Chalmers and most other cars.

Here are three parts out of thousands in the chassis. They are hidden moving parts of the motor—the crankshaft, connecting rods and pistons. Chalmers makes them of extraordinary materials with extraordinary care and thoroughness.

One-Piece Crankshaft

The crankshaft is drop-forged from heat treated carbon steel in a single piece. Balancing weights are integral with the shaft. The shaft is 2 1/4 inches in diameter. Sturdy, but not heavy. Rigid. Strong. It is balanced while rotating at a fast rate of speed, on a unique machine. This helps you to understand why the Chalmers motor is so smooth.

Connecting Rods—Strong, Light

Connecting rods are designed to secure rigidity and lightness. They are made of special carbon steel. Are unusually strong and dependable. Each rod weighs only 41 ounces. Yet they will withstand greater stress and strain than some connecting rods weighing almost twice as much.

Light Weight Pistons

Chalmers pistons are of Lynite. A light and tough metal, about 1/3 the weight of cast iron. Chalmers pistons reduce the strain on the bearings. They insure the marvelous Chalmers smoothness. They make possible the remarkable Chalmers power.

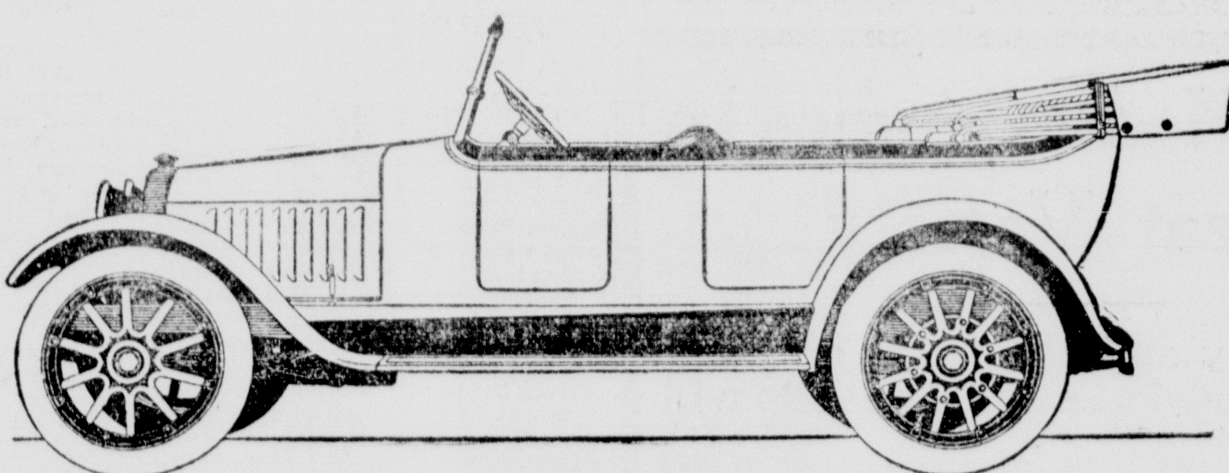

All of the above means quality. The kind of quality you need in the car you buy, and the kind of quality you GET in the Chalmers
